

PUBLIC NOTICE

It has come to the notice of Central Vigilance Commission that an organisation named "Crime Free India Bureau", with its address as "Media Force, D-411, Ramphal Chowk, Dwarka, Sector-7, New Delhi-110 077", in its publications namely "Crime and India" and "Media Force" and other publicity material, has stated that the Central Vigilance Commission has authorized them to receive complaints against public servants, to conduct investigation and to submit reports to the Commission.

It is hereby informed to all concerned that Crime Free India Bureau has not been authorized by the Central Vigilance Commission to either receive complaints against public servants on its behalf or to conduct investigation and submit reports to the Commission. The organisation is using the Commission's name and authority in an unauthorized manner and the public or any organisation which is having any kind of dealings/interaction with Crime Free India Bureau would be doing so at their own risk. The Central Vigilance Commission would not be responsible for any action of Crime Free India Bureau.