Office Order No. 04/09/14

Subject: Constitution of the advisory Board on Bank, Commercial and Financial Frauds (ABBCFF) – regarding.

On completion of the term of the existing Chairman of ABBCFF on 25.03.2014, the Central Vigilance Commission appoints Smt. Ranjana Kumar, Ex-Chairperson, NABARD, Ex. Vigilance Commissioner, CVC as Chairperson of Advisory Board on Bank, Commercial and Financial Frauds.

2. The tenure of the Chairperson would be for a period of two years from 02.09.2014. The other terms and conditions of appointment would be as indicated in Annex. (In case the Chairperson designate is holding an office of profit / a regular appointment carrying monthly emoluments with Govt. of India, Govt. of any of the States/Union Territories of India or any other company, society and local authority owned or controlled by Govt. of India/any of the States/Union Territories of India, as on 02.09.2014, her appointment as Chairperson of the Board would be considered from the date succeeding the day on which she demits the office/post which she is holding, other than the Chairperson of the Board).

3. The location of the Board will continue to be at Mumbai, but the Board may, at its convenience meet anywhere in India. As in the past, the Board would form part of the organizational infrastructure of the CBI with the RBI providing the required investigative and secretarial services, alongwith the necessary funds.

4. The Board's jurisdiction would be confined to those cases where, in disagreement or dispute with the Bank, PSU or Financial Institution, the CBI desires to register an RC/PE in respect of an allegation of a fraud:

- in a borrowal account in a public sector bank; or
- financial or commercial frauds in a Financial Institution or Public Sector Undertaking.

5. Apart from the above, the Board may also advise on any other technical matter referred to it by the CBI or CVC.

6. Considering the limited number of such disputes arising annually, the Commission does not, at the moment, find it appropriate to specify the levels above which the reference could be made to the Board. Thus, CBI may refer any case to the Board where it has a difference of opinion with the organisation concerned, along the lines indicated above, irrespective of the level of officers/officials involved in the case. It is also clarified that the advice tendered by the Board would not be binding on the CBI.

7. The nomenclature, functions, tenure, facilities, infrastructure and mechanism for consultation and secretarial assistance will be the same as indicated in the Commission's O.M No. 99/VGL/54 dated 08.08.2000.
